FIRST DISTRICT.

Utah is going solid for Cleveland. The elders have a special liking for the man.

There is no danger that Ohio will go democratic. It will remember Garfield in this campaign.

Hades will be pretty well frozen over before the democrats can elect a president on a juggling platform.

After the election the democrats will try to make the people believe that they nominated Cleveland for fun.

All that Carl Schurz and the Milwaukee democracy want in order to be equal to the southern bulldozers, is a shot gun.

The news from Maine doesn't set well on the democratic stomach. It turns that delicate part of human system sour.

Since Maine went "hell-bent for Governor Kent," the democrats were never more surprised than they are to-day over the news from that state.

There are some six different lives of Cleveland out already. Of course, they are brief and cheap, because there was not much to write about. No family can afford to be without one of them.

The democrats are kept pretty busy dancing to the music of the campaign made by Mr. Blaine. It is rather hot for a burdened party to be kept on the run, but that is one of the peculiar features of an "aggressive" campaign.

Once in a while a democrat will bob up who really thinks, or so he seems to think, that Cleveland will be elected because Cleveland says he will be. This shows how easily a man will become intoxicated by the "exuberance of his own verbosity."

The latest humbug comes from Georgia, where it is said a negro is making money by selling to the colored people a bogus letter which he claims was written by the Savior. Probably he got the democratic national committee to forge it.

Some one wanted to know why the democratic campaign in Indiana had received a little new life last week. It was soon explained. A whole raft of criminals escaped from confinement at South Bend, and not one of them have been captured.

The folly of a fool will surely overtake him. Begole, the greenback governor of Michigan, told the convention which recently renominated him that he "never rode in his life as a governor on a free pass." And now the newspapers are making it lively for him by printing two of his letters asking for pass-books from railroad superintendents.

Mr. J. O. Barthol, of the Milton Telephone, was nominated on Monday for the assembly by the republican convention of the Third district. He is a young man of many splendid qualities, and will make an able and an active member of the legislature. Mr. Barthol is a graduate of Milton college, and of course has an excellent education. But more than that: He is a man of good judgment, of practical ideas concerning politics, is a good speaker, as his brief speech to the convention goes to show, and is in all things a young man to be honored. His nomination is equivalent to an election.

In the congressional convention at Detroit to-morrow, Rock county will be solid for Mr. Caswell. This vote will be the first he will receive from his own county, just half of the vote of the convention. There is every reason to believe that he will receive the nomination. Should it be his good fortune to be nominated, it will be particularly fortunate for the district. Mr. Caswell is a strong man—strong before the people and strong in congress. He can carry the district by a greater majority than any other candidate that can be named. That the first congressional district may be solid republican beyond all doubt is the chief reason why the republicans of Rock so earnestly support Mr. Caswell. Mr. Wilson or any other democrat wouldn't have a ghost of a chance against him.

Those who are running the prohibition campaign really seem to be in earnest when they reason in this way: "Suppose we do defeat the election of James G. Blaine and John A. Logan, and thus overthrow the republican party, and bring into power Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks, and the old democratic party, the final result will be good, since out of the republican party there will arise a prohibition party, which, four years hence, through disguise at the weakness of the democratic party, will come into power and destroy the main manufacture and traffic in ardent spirit altogether."

This assumption is about as wild and irrational as the propositions that pure government can come out of the democratic party as it is now constituted. It is not often that good can come out of evil. Providence in the inscrutability of his wisdom may sometimes cause this to be done, but that power will not be displayed by him in this campaign. He will not turn the folly of the prohibitionists into a blessing. The moral philosophy which attempts to teach that men must do an evil thing that good may come out of it, will certainly lead to confusion and defeat. One of the wildest mistakes the prohibitionists make is in supposing that the defeat of the republican party—a defeat they are trying to bring about—will lead to temperance reform. This is the wildest idea that ever entered the head of man.

TWISTED FIGURES.

The Madison Democrat publishes these figures concerning the Vermont election:

September, 1883, republican majority.....25,338
September, 1882, republican majority.....25,338
September, 1881, republican majority.....25,338
September, 1880, republican majority.....25,338
September, 1879, republican majority.....25,338

Then the Democrat asks if anything peculiar can be seen in the figures, and suggests that Blaine's magnetism has not reached Vermont. The Democrat is in error in giving the republican majority for governor in 1880. Governor Fairbanks's majority was 24,845, and not 25,000. The democrats will possibly remember that in August, 1880, the campaign in Vermont was carried on with remarkable vigor by the republicans. The democratic orders were to storm the republican position in that state. Then the republicans went to work in dead earnest, and placed meetings in every school district in Vermont, and the result was as we have stated.

As the average republican majorities in that state have been only a little more than 21,000, the majority this year of nearly 22,000 with no special canvass, the jubilant feeling of the Madison Democrat over the result in the Green Mountain state is somewhat premature.

MAINE'S SPLENDID WORK.

The news from Maine is like a Mantle to woe to the democrats. It is a great victory that the republicans expected, and a much greater one than has been gained in the Free Tree state during the past twelve years. Maine was more deeply affected by the greenback craze in 1878 than any other state in the Union. The greenbackers and the democrats joined hands to defeat the republicans, and as a matter of course the republican vote largely fell off and was not regained until the election of Tuesday. The following table shows the vote in that state at the last six gubernatorial elections:

Rep. Com. Opp. Rep. Maj. Opp. Maj.
1878.....25,338 43,100 5,411
1879.....25,338 43,100 5,411
1880.....25,338 43,100 5,411
1881.....25,338 43,100 5,411
1882.....25,338 43,100 5,411
1883.....25,338 43,100 5,411

When we look at this table and see how the party has been stormed by all sorts of factious in Maine, and then look at the republican majority of Tuesday, we can see why the democrats bitterly feel the cold wave, and why the republicans are excited with enthusiasm. In Bangor, the poor democrats blame the national democratic committee for the blunder, saying they were neglected in the canvass. The republicans made a gallant fight, but Blaine, and right on their side, and of course won a victory of which they may justly feel proud. At the latest accounts the republican majority will not be less than 10,000 or 13,000.

CARL SCHURZ DISGRACED.

Last Saturday evening Carl Schurz delivered a speech at Schiller's park in Milwaukee, professing to reply to the address of the Germans of that city issued in answer to his recent Brooklyn speech. The conduct of Mr. Schurz on that evening, and the incidents which accompanied the close of his speech, are disgraceful to that gentleman and a blushing shame to the democracy of Milwaukee. The Sentinel and the Evening Wisconsin unite in condemning it as the most disgraceful political scene that ever had been known in this city. The whole case in a brief paragraph, is as follows, taken from the Sentinel:

"After Mr. Schurz's arrival here, a number of those who signed the reply to his Brooklyn speech, old personal friends of his, waited upon him, and requested that he would consent to a joint discussion. This proposition he declined, but said that he would only occupy an hour and a quarter with his speech, and it was arranged that upon its conclusion, Mr. Brucker might have an opportunity to address the meeting. Further, it was agreed that if Mr. Schurz made any statement which they regarded as incorrect, they might interrupt him and indicate in what respect they thought him in error as to facts. They were also allowed a place on the platform. To this arrangement, as the best practicable, they assented.

"The speech of Mr. Schurz was, in substance, a reproduction in German of his Brooklyn speech. He once more thrust over again the old straw of the Mulligan letters. From the beginning to the close it was confined to personalities with a single exception, and that was a demagogical attempt to stir up the Germans on the beer question. It was a long and violent personal attack upon Mr. Blaine, followed by a brief and fulsome eulogy of Grover Cleveland. None of the political issues of the canvass were discussed."

It is said that the scenes which followed the delivery of the speech of Mr. Schurz was disgraceful in the extreme. Instead of speaking one hour and a half, as promised, and giving Mr. Brucker an opportunity to answer him, he spoke three hours and a half, and utterly refused to hear him. When Mr. Brucker began to speak, the democratic rioters, inspired by Carl Schurz himself, broke loose, and a storm of hisses, and the throwing of stones and clubs and the hurling of vile epithets, followed. The democratic mob mounted the stage in an uproar of yells and threats, swinging their clubs and spitting at Mr. Brucker and defying him to utter a word in defense of Mr. Blaine. But Mr. Brucker was not to be frightened. With folded arms he stood before the howling mob, and though not permitted to speak beneath the flag that arched the stage, he defied the wrath of the democratic rioters.

For this disgraceful condition of things, Mr. Schurz is chiefly responsible. He could have stopped the riot by the simple wave of the hand at first, but he would not. The democratic leaders could have stopped it, but they refused to do so. The responsibility of this gross outrage against common decency, will be re-venge at the proper time by the republicans of Milwaukee. The better element in that city will not allow this great wrong to go unrebuked. The event disgraced Carl Schurz and dishonored the democracy of Milwaukee, but it helped the republican cause.

VOX POPULI MAINE.

Returns from the Maine Election and What They Indicate.

The Republicans Have a Plurality of Over 10,000 in 235 Towns.

Prohibition Amendment Claimed To Be Carried by 50,000 Majority—All Port of the Republican Congressmen Elected—The Figures.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 9.—The citizens of Maine Monday elected a governor, four members of congress, thirty-one state senators, 151 state representatives, and full boards of officers in the whole state district. The gubernatorial vote in 1880 stood: Plained (Fusion), 73,718; Davis (Rep.), 73,544; scattering, 545; total, 147,807.

The president of the year stood: Garfield, 74,632; Hancock, 65,211; Weaver, 4,409; total, 144,252. The gubernatorial vote in 1883 stood: Blaine (Rep.), 73,451; Plained (Fusion), 69,921; Chase (Greenback), 1,324; Vinton (Ind. Rep.), 300; Davis (Prohibition), 324; scattering, 102; total, 135,428. A republican plurality of 4,523.

The republican vote has gained about 10 per cent. in all the sections of the state, which, if held throughout the state, will give Blaine a total vote of 73,000, against 72,500 for the democrats. The democratic vote two years ago was 68,000, and Monday it was apparently about 64,000 or 65,000.

Mr. Blaine claims the state for Robie by 12,000. The returns indicate that it will exceed this and will probably be 15,000.

The latest—Two hundred and sixty-seven towns give Robie 41,818; Redman, 45,064; scattering, 2,404; a plurality of 15,345. The main towns in 1882 gave Robie 50,705; Plained, 47,900; scattering, 4,407; total, 103,012. The vote to have Robie give Robie 103,012; Plained, 101,411. Total will have over 10,000 plurality in a total vote of about 140,000. The vote of 1883 gave a total plurality of 101,411, or the gain this year is 10,000 on the gubernatorial vote of 1880. The gubernatorial vote that year gave Robie 73,718; Plained, 73,544; scattering, 545; total, 147,807. The gubernatorial vote, and probably will gain in November considerably on this. The legislature will be overwhelmingly republican.

So Far As Heard From.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 9.—Two hundred and thirty-five towns give Robie (Rep.), 73,077; Redman, 41,818; Republican plurality, 31,259. In 1882 the towns gave Robie 58,180; Plained, 43,500; Republican plurality, 9,145.

The vote of Portland is: Robie 3,929; Redman, 3,181; Davis (Prohibition), 17; scattering, 30; total, 7,157; Robie's majority, 7,087. In 1882 the towns gave Robie 58,180; Plained, 43,500; Republican plurality, 9,145.

John B. Finch, of Nebraska, has telegraphed The Chicago Times that Robie's majority is 10,000; that the republicans elect four congressmen, while the democratic amendment is adopted by 50,000 majority.

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 9.—The official vote of Augusta for governor stands: Robie, (Rep.), 1,307; Redman, (Dem.), 624; Davis, (Pro.), 43; H. Eaton, (Greenback), 1—total, 1,975. The towns gave Robie 1,307 for the Democrats, on the total vote of 1880. The republican plurality in 1882 was 312; this year, 648; a republican gain of 336.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 9.—The Lewiston Journal claims 12,000 majority for Robie. This county has given Robie about 500 majority.

CALAIS, Me., Sept. 9.—This county gives Robie over 1,300 majority.

Congressional District Returns.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 9.—The only doubtful congressional district was the First, in which Congressman Thomas B. Reed was elected by a majority of 1,000. The republican vote was 1,000; the democratic vote was 1,000. The republican vote was 1,000; the democratic vote was 1,000.

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 9.—Twenty-three towns in the Fourth congressional district give Robie (Rep.) for congress, 4,833; Lynch (Dem.), 3,150—Robie's majority, 1,683.

DEMOCRATIC GAIN IN LEWISTON.

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 9.—D. J. Callahan, chairman of the democratic city committee, has telegraphed Chairman Barrows: Lewis has the home of Frye and Dingley elects four democratic representatives, a gain of four, and gives Robie, for governor, 87 majority, a gain of 313.

Five thousand democrats assembled in the park Monday evening to celebrate their victory in the city, and were addressed by the representatives elected.

The Prohibition Amendment.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 9.—The temporary women claim that they have carried the prohibitory constitutional amendment by over 50,000 majority. There is no doubt of its adoption, only question being as to the majority.

Musson, secretary of the State Temperance alliance, reports the returns of the vote on the prohibition amendment in 200 towns as follows: "Yes," 74,500; "No," 29,500. The majority will probably exceed 45,000.

FROM MAINE.

The Latest Result in the Pine Tree State.

The Republican Plurality nearly 17,000.

[Special to the Gazette.]

AUGUSTA, Sept. 9.—The latest returns will give a republican plurality of over 16,000. Two hundred and sixty-seven towns give Robie 41,818; Redman 45,064; scattering 2,404; plurality 16,245.

The congressional delegation is solidly republican. The legislature overwhelmingly republican. The temperance people claim the prohibition amendment is carried by over fifty thousand majority. Read for congress in the first district will have plurality nine hundred. The returns from most places heard from show republican gains.

CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—William Lyle, a Times reporter, stabbed an engineer named John Gregg during a dispute in regard to a foot race at the state fair grounds Monday. The parties had previously had some words, but the trouble was supposed to be over when Lyle drew his pocket-knife and sprang for Gregg, cutting him in the throat, breast and stomach before the knife could be taken from him. Lyle was immediately taken away by the police. Gregg's friends immediately organized a vigilance committee to try and capture him, but the police hurried Lyle away. Gregg cannot live. Lyle recently heretofore a reporter in The Times office. He is a southerner.

The codfish boat of 500,000 quintals short, and 600 families in northeast Newfoundland are almost starving. Great numbers of forebears are off the coast and drifting down into the channel of ocean steamers.

Assault on Non-Union Men.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9.—About 10 o'clock at night three non-union mounds were assaulted near Ross's foundry and badly beaten by a party of strikers. Archie Cunningham had his leg broken and Frank Harrington was badly cut about the head and face. The third man escaped. The injured men were taken to the city hospital. No arrests have been made.

"WHO STOLE THE BONDS?"

A Question to Agitate the Minds of Property Owners.

Bonds to the Amount of $137,000 Unaccounted for.

Some Very Loose or Crooked Work on the Part of Some One.

For some years past the people, especially tax payers of Janesville, have congratulated themselves that the city was free from a bonded debt, that with the exception of $10,000 or $15,000 in school house and fire department bonds the city was free from indebtedness, and that we were about ready to embark in some public works to benefit and boom the business of our city. Those who where thus congratulating themselves will be greatly alarmed, if not astounded, when they read the Gazette this evening. Last year the common council was somewhat surprised when a suit was commenced in the United States court for the collection of a number of railroad bonds. The result of that suit is familiar to our readers. The city was compelled to pay the bonds. When these bonds were passed over to the city, it was thought by all the innocent tax-payers that they were all cancelled and destroyed. How much greater will be their surprise and astonishment when they are informed that three thousand dollars more of these bonds are now in the hands of an attorney in this city, for which payment has been demanded. The tax-payers of Janesville have just cause for alarm concerning these bonds. We examined the "bond register" in the office of the city clerk to-day, and noted the official issue of bonds, that is those in dispute. This record book shows that $75,000 in bonds were issued August 1st, 1893, bearing 8 per cent. semi-annual interest, the bonds falling due July 1st, 1897, interest and principal payable in New York. We also found written on the page upon which the bonds were recorded and included, these words:

Bonds from No. 10 to No. 20 inclusive, and bonds from No. 30 to No. 75 inclusive, issued to the Rock River Valley Union railroad company, and the assignment thereof to the Rock River Union Valley railroad company, bonds from No. 1 to No. 9, inclusive, and bonds from No. 30 to No. 82, inclusive, drawn to Rock River Valley Union railroad company, signed by treasurer (J. W. Robinson) and clerk (J. H. Ogilvie) and the assignment thereof to the same company, all of which said bonds were cancelled and destroyed by the mayor and clerk on the 11th day of October, A. D. 1893.

S. A. HUBSON, Mayor.

Attorney—F. BARRETT, Clerk.

Again we find the register contains the entry of $30,000 in bonds issued for the same purpose, under same date, etc., and the following note entered:

"The above bonds from No. one to No. fifty were cancelled and destroyed by the mayor and clerk on the 11th day of October, A. D. 1893."

S. A. HUBSON, Mayor.

Attorney—F. BARRETT, Clerk.

Again we find $12,000 issued to one John Bradley, a contractor, of which no entry is made as to their payment.

Thus it will be seen that one hundred and thirty-seven thousand dollars in bonds were issued in 1893 for railroad purposes. The record in the clerk's office shows that all but $12,000 of these bonds have been "cancelled and destroyed," which is not a fact. The certificate given by Mayor Robinson and Clerk Barrett needs an explanation; the treasurer now has several thousand dollars of these bonds in his possession, none of which are cancelled; an attorney in this city has presented three more of $1,000 each, to payment, and it is quietly whispered that the whole amount is outstanding and with the exception of the portion of the interest outlaid, will be presented for payment within the stipulated twenty years from 1873, the date upon which they fell due in New York.

The manner in which the bonds were registered in the book as cancelled, is questionable, and needs an explanation which the present clerk is unable to give. The numbers seemed to be all "checked off," some with the ordinary "V" check mark kept by accountants, and others bearing a small "c" for a sign.

It is a question how the bonds got into the hands of parties outside the city officers who certify that they were destroyed, and it is also a question as to the amount thus outstanding. Some think the entire amount excepting those now in the hands of the treasurer, are held by parties who will outface payment.

We can not accuse the officers above mentioned of any neglect of duty, but the record, as made by themselves, is contradicted by the appearance for payment of some of the bonds. The property owners of this city, will demand that the council investigate the matter, and see who is to blame for an unaccountable debt of $137,000 unaccounted for.

Happy Cal. Wagner.

The Wagner Minstrel troupe will appear at the opera house on Wednesday evening. Witness the following from the Omaha Bee:

"The performance given last evening at Boyd's opera house by Wagner's Minstrel troupe was attended by an immense audience, in which were to be seen the faces of our most prominent citizens and theatre goers. At 7:45 standing room only was announced, and after the curtain was rung up at eight o'clock, every one who came, had to be denied admittance, and lose the pleasant treat of the season. The troupe of singers was simply marvellous except to those who know what Happy Cal Wagner's Minstrel can do in the way of singing a crowd, and the police found it impossible to clear the house. As to the programme it may be said in brief that all the acts were new. The entertainment, from first to last, was full of mirth, without any semblance of vulgarity. Our citizens appreciate and merit, genuine wit and minstrelsy in a refined manner, and Happy Cal Wagner realized the fact, for surely an audience of such magnitude and respectability is rarely gathered together in our city."

—Several Janesville politicians will go to Beloit to-morrow to attend the republican congressional convention.

—At three o'clock this afternoon the thermometer indicated 97 degrees in the shade—evidently the hottest day of the year.

The Aid society of the Baptist church, will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Wheeler on Park avenue, near fourth ward park.

A number of Janesville democrats went to Madison this afternoon to attend the democratic state convention, which meets in the capitol to-morrow.

—One year ago this morning this section of country was visited by a severe frost, the thermometer at five o'clock in the morning indicating 31 degrees above zero. Tobacco and corn was generally destroyed in the low lands of the country.

—Prof. Morris drew quite a crowd of people on Milwaukee street bridge this afternoon, while he was bathing his performing dogs in the river. The people stood in the broiling sun without grumbling while the performance was going on.

—The Nashville church choir company appeared at Rockford Sunday evening and sang to an audience of twelve hundred in the Centennial church. Last evening they had a crowded house, and by special request they give a concert to night in the same city on the east side of the river.

—There was an insurance on the stock burned in the Cold Spring brewery yesterday afternoon, of $1,200 in the agency of Mr. S. Strauss, of Oxford. The delay in getting the east side engine to work was owing to the boiler feed-pipe being stopped by sand, which was filled the last time the engine was out. The engine was "taken down" and cleared of sand, but this small pipe was accidentally overlooked. The fault was soon remedied, however, and all went well.

—The Milane and Logan club held an enthusiastic meeting last evening, the room being packed full of republicans. The meeting was addressed by Mr. W. A. Harrington, an Irishman, on the subject "Why Irishmen should vote for Blaine and Logan." The address was a very able one. The club gave the speaker a vote of thanks for his able address, and closed with three cheers for the Irish-American voters. Mr. A. W. Baldwin presided at the meeting, and Mr. Wilson Lane was at the secretary's desk.

THE DEVIL ON EXHIBITION.

The management of the Milwaukee Exposition, always on the lookout for attractions, has secured a real, live devil. The imp will be utilized in connection with a complete newspaper and job printing plant, which will be one of the features of the coming Exposition. A daily newspaper, "The Exposition Bulletin," will be set up, printed and distributed gratuitously in the building. Editorially it will be earnest and practical, but not sectarian, and politically as independent as paste-pot and shears can make it.

Most of the exhibitors have taken possession of their space, and the great hall resounds with the multiplied noises of a small army of workmen engaged in preparing the necessary structures. Applications for space are still coming in, but vacant spots are very few and far between, and many of the late comers must be disappointed. Every indication points to a very attractive and successful exposition.

The great panorama painting, the "Battle of Lookout Mountain," is rapidly nearing completion, and the few who have been permitted a hasty glance at the unfinished work or who have escaped the watchmen's vigilant eye and stolen a furtive view of the monster painting, are enthusiastic over it.

In this day of interest in Arctic research, it will please intending visitors to know that Bradford, the famous painter of Arctic scenery, will not only send his world known collection of pictures, but will come himself, and in a series of free lectures tell of his personal experiences in the frozen north.

Professor Morris' Dogs.

For the past three or four days, the little folks, and many of the older ones, have been interested in a troupe of trained dogs, and the opera house was packed last evening to witness the entertainment given by Prof. Morris. For an hour and a half the audience were delighted with the performance of the carefully trained canines; and as set forth in quick succession, it was plain to observe that Prof. Morris possessed not only patience as a trainer, but that he also possessed sixteen dogs, and every one a star before the footlights. The entertainment is novel, and one of the most interesting ever given on the opera house stage. Attend to-night, and see the last performance.
